

Call for Applications for the 2025–2026 Academic Year

The Dr. Yair Tzadok Weil Unit for Social Impact Projects

In these difficult days, the Bar-Ilan community continues to mobilize for the welfare of others.

For the 2025–2026 academic year, the Dr. Yair Tzadok Weil Unit for Social Impact Projects will continue to support volunteer-based initiatives at the University that promote the wellbeing of vulnerable populations in Israel. Now in its 9th year, the Unit supports a wide range of innovative and impactful initiatives. Each year, both new projects and ongoing ones are selected for support. As in the previous year, the Unit seeks to include projects that assist individuals affected by the war, such as those coping with loss, trauma, displacement or the breakdown of community.

➤ Step 1: Submit application

The application must be submitted in Hebrew.

Click here to submit an application >>

➤ Step 2: Application review

The application will be reviewed by a committee. Grant recipients will be notified in the beginning of the 5786 (2025–2026) academic year.

➤ Step 3: Reporting

Mid-Year report: At the end of the first semester, selected initiatives will report on activities and use of funds.

End-of-Year report: At the end of the academic year, recipients will submit a written report on the project's activities along with a financial report. Any unused funds will be returned for committee review.

Closing event: At the end of the academic year, grant recipients will present their projects at a closing event.

Who can apply?

- Academic and administrative staff
- University employees wishing to lead a project under their department
- Students from all departments and degree levels

Duration:

- At least one year

Preference will be given to:

- Volunteer-based projects that leverage the academic resources and expertise of the University
- Projects with high potential for social impact
- Applicants with a strong track record in the field relevant to their proposal

Funding:

- Up to 60,000 NIS. Final funding decisions will be made by the committee.

Deadline : August 4, 2025

For further details: weil.award@biu.ac.il